UNPUBLISHED DECISION¹

On December 6, 2019, the parties filed a joint stipulation concerning the petition for compensation filed by Eric Raymer on May 2, 2017. Petitioner alleged that the influenza (“flu”) vaccine he received on September 30, 2014, which is contained in the Vaccine Injury Table (the “Table”), 42 C.F.R. §100.3(a), caused him to suffer chronic inflammatory demyelinating polyneuritis (“CIDP”). Petitioner further alleges that he suffered the residual effects of this injury for more than six months. Petitioner represents that there has been no prior award or settlement of a civil action for damages on his behalf as a result of his condition.

¹ The E-Government Act, 44 U.S.C. § 3501 note (2012) (Federal Management and Promotion of Electronic Government Services), requires that the Court post this decision on its website. Pursuant to Vaccine Rule 18(b), the parties have 14 days to file a motion proposing redaction of medical information or other information described in 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-12(d)(4). Any redactions ordered by the special master will appear in the document posted on the website.

Respondent denies that the vaccine either caused or significantly aggravated petitioner's alleged injury or any other injury. Nevertheless, the parties agree to the joint stipulation, attached hereto. The undersigned finds said stipulation reasonable and adopts it as the decision of the Court in awarding damages, on the terms set forth therein.

Damages awarded in that stipulation include:

- a. A lump sum payment of $176,000.00, which amount represents compensation for first year life care expenses ($7,350.00), and combined pain and suffering and partial past unreimbursable expenses ($168,650.00) in the form of a check payable to petitioner;
- b. A lump sum of $5,725.26, representing the balance of petitioner's past unreimbursable expenses, in the form of a check payable jointly to petitioner, Eric Raymer, and Dr. Steven Inbody. Petitioner agrees to endorse this payment to Dr. Steven Inbody; and
- c. An amount sufficient to purchase the annuity contract described in paragraph 10 of the joint stipulation attached hereto, paid to the life insurance company from which the annuity will be purchased (the "Life Insurance Company").

These amounts represent compensation for all damages that would be available under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a).

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC, Appendix B, the clerk is directed to enter judgment in case 17-590V according to this decision and the attached stipulation.²

IT IS SO ORDERED.
